FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 11/01/11

CONTACT:
Dr. Norm Dolch, Editor-in-Chief
(972) 369-2395, dolch@pacs.unt.edu
http://www.jnel.net/

Journal of Nonprofit Education and Leadership publishes Volume 2, Issue 1

Bowling Green, Ky. The Western Kentucky University Research Foundation and the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance (formerly American Humanics) are pleased to announce publication of Volume 2(1) of the Journal of Nonprofit Leadership and Education. The Journal of Nonprofit Education and Leadership publishes quality manuscripts to disseminate the latest knowledge related to nonprofit education and leadership to help develop theory and practice. The journal seeks quantitative and/or qualitative research findings; conceptual or theoretical discussions; or program best practices. Relevant topic areas (centered on nonprofit education and leadership) for the journal include, but are not limited to: nonprofit governance, fundraising, volunteer management, operations, legal framework, philanthropy, program planning, implementation and evaluation, and financial management.

Abstracts (free) and full articles (available by subscription) are available at http://www.jnel.net/. Volume 2(1) includes the following:

Articles

- Editor's Note (Norm Dolch)
- Astor Services’ Jim McGuirk Talks with Doug Eadie about Chief Executive Leadership (Doug Eadie)
- Strategic Management of NGOs in Developing Countries (Niaz Murtaza and Michael J. Austin)
- Educating and Empowering Youth through Philanthropy: A Case Study of a High School Giving Circle (L. M. Thiele, Angela M. Eikenberry, Jason Metton, and Michele Millard)
- Measuring Youth Worker Efficacy Levels in a Not-for-profit Youth Development Setting (Christopher L. Kowalski, Julianne Gassman, and Carly Konecny)

Book Reviews

- Women & Philanthropy: Boldly Shaping a Better World. (Becky Sykes)

Subscriptions

Information regarding subscribing to the journal can be found at: http://www.jnel.net/. Library subscriptions may be obtained via several subscription management services such as: EBSCO, Swets, and HARRASSOWITZ.

Support for The Journal of Nonprofit Education and Leadership

The journal advisory group (representing the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance and the WKU Research Foundation) includes: Raymond A. Poff, Ph.D., Western Kentucky University; Susan T. Schmidt, MPA, University of Memphis; and Connie Foster, MLS, Western Kentucky University.

The journal, hosted at WKU, uses resources available through TopSCHOLAR® http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/ a University-wide, centralized digital repository dedicated to scholarly research, creative activity and other full-text learning resources that merit enduring and archival value and permanent access. TopSCHOLAR® uses the Digital Commons platform from Berkeley Electronic Press http://www.bepress.com/
The Nonprofit Leadership Alliance http://www.humanics.org/ is a national alliance of colleges, universities and nonprofit organizations dedicated to educating, preparing and certifying professionals to strengthen and lead nonprofit organizations.

The Western Kentucky University Research Foundation (WKURF) http://www.wku.edu/wkurf/ is organized to support Western Kentucky University efforts to promote the development, implementation, and coordination of extramurally sponsored programs involving research, instruction, public service, and to legally protect, manage and commercialize intellectual property resulting from research, scholarship and creative activities on behalf of Western Kentucky University.

Bookmark www.jnel.net and take part in shaping your profession.

PRACTICE, RESEARCH & THEORY